

Perhaps even more significant is the balance in this class— up in both undergraduate and online formats, and up in both headcount as well as in credit hours. The 1,000 represents a 2.5% increase over last year. The number of students achieving 15% performance that runs counter to national trends in the higher education sector. It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the members of the UNA family for this record-setting performance.
